

Stokesley School and Sixth Form Alumni

Name:

Ryan Dury

Attended Stokesley School & Sixth Form from:

2008-2013

Went on to:

Emigrate to Las Vegas, USA, to work as an acrobat performer in the show “Le Rêve - the Dream” at the Wynn Resort

Current role/s:

Acrobat performer in the show “Absinthe” at Caesars Palace

The best part of my job is:

Living in Las Vegas, performing 10 shows a week in one of the most renowned stage shows in the world. Being able to entertain large audiences and take them away from reality for an hour and a half.

Advice to current Stokesley students:

Always follow your passion and not what other people expect of you. If you love what you do, you’ll never work a day in your life.
